

National Executive Board

LAMBDA SIGMA UPSILON LATINO FRATERNITY, INC.

Anti-Hazing Policy

Lambda Sigma Upsilon Latino Fraternity, Inc. (LSU) is dedicated to fostering leadership, scholarship, and brotherhood in an environment built on respect, trust, and unity. Hazing is antithetical to these core values and will not be tolerated under any circumstances. LSU strictly prohibits all forms of hazing in accordance with federal, state, and university regulations, and is committed to the safety, dignity, and well-being of its members and pledges.

Definition of Hazing

Hazing is defined as any action, behavior, or situation, whether intentional or unintentional, that causes or has the potential to cause physical, emotional, or psychological harm, discomfort, embarrassment, or degradation to an individual or group as a condition for membership, initiation, or affiliation with the fraternity. Hazing can occur with or without consent and is a violation of LSU's principles and applicable laws.

Hazing includes, but is not limited to:

Physical activities such as forced exercise, sleep deprivation, exposure to extreme conditions, or physical assault.

Psychological or emotional abuse, including verbal harassment, humiliation, intimidation, or isolation.

Forced consumption of food, alcohol, drugs, or any other substances.

Activities that interfere with academic or work responsibilities.

Any act that intentionally causes discomfort, ridicule, or shame.

Prohibition of Hazing

Zero Tolerance Policy: LSU maintains a strict zero-tolerance policy regarding hazing in any form. This applies to all members, pledges, alumni, and guests involved in fraternity activities.

No Consent Defense: Hazing is prohibited regardless of an individual's willingness to participate. Consent is not a defense for hazing activities.

Cultural Traditions: LSU values its cultural traditions, but all activities related to membership intake or initiation must comply with anti-hazing policies. Cultural pride and brotherhood are promoted through positive, respectful, and inclusive practices.

Membership Intake and New Member Education

Respectful Process: The membership intake process must foster a positive and educational experience for all new members. It should emphasize leadership development, academic success, and the values of Lambda Sigma Upsilon.

Prohibited Activities: The following activities are strictly prohibited during the new member education process:

- Any form of physical or verbal abuse.
- Forced activities that result in mental, emotional, or physical discomfort.
- Activities that involve intimidation or threats.
- Any behavior that violates university or fraternity policies.

Reporting and Enforcement

Reporting Hazing: Members, pledges, and guests are encouraged to report any hazing incidents or concerns. Reports can be made to the chapter's executive board, national organization, university administration, or anonymously through the fraternity's reporting system.

Investigation Process: All reports of hazing will be thoroughly investigated by the fraternity's leadership in collaboration with university officials if necessary. The investigation process will ensure confidentiality and fairness.

Disciplinary Action: Any member found responsible for participating in or facilitating hazing activities will face disciplinary action, which may include suspension, expulsion, or referral to law enforcement authorities.

Education and Prevention

Mandatory Education: LSU chapters are required to participate in annual anti-hazing education and awareness programs. These programs will provide guidance on preventing hazing, understanding its harmful effects, and promoting positive membership practices.

Leadership Accountability: Chapter leadership is responsible for ensuring that all members understand and adhere to the anti-hazing policy. Failure to prevent or address hazing incidents may result in sanctions against the chapter and its leadership.

Support for Members: Members who have experienced or witnessed hazing are encouraged to seek support through the fraternity, university counseling services, or external resources. LSU is committed to creating a supportive environment for all members.

Commitment to a Positive Brotherhood Experience

Lambda Sigma Upsilon Latino Fraternity, Inc. is dedicated to fostering an environment where all members feel safe, valued, and respected. Hazing undermines the fraternity's mission and damages the trust and unity essential to our brotherhood. We are committed to upholding this anti-hazing policy and creating a fraternity experience that is defined by Academic Excellence, Cultural Awareness & Diversity, Brotherhood, & Being a role model to the community.

Last Updated: September 2024